Scoring the Clubs CALENDAR

SUNDAY, MARCH 26

Vinny Golia/Mark Trayle,
Vince Meghrouni/Tom
Watson at Sacred Grounds.

Look out, it's getting conceptual around here. While I knew that L.A.'s pre-eminent multireed explorer and bandleader, Vinny Golia, had played with people like Anthony Braxton and Bobby Bradford, the press release adds Patti Smith to the list. So maybe he'll be sort of prepared to partner up with cultural-demolition artist Mark Trayle, who has been known to make music out of the magnetic strips on credit cards. This evening's other duo features guitarist Tom Watson (Slovenly, Red Krayola, Mike Watt, The Best of All) with Vince Meghrouni (Slowrider, El Grupo Sexo), who "has taken up the performance of music as a way of siphoning off tension accumulated through his dedication to phone sales." Oh. (Greg Burk)
